why is not West Virginia down among the States that responded to the call?

At the invitation of the Irish Leaguers, signed by the O'Donohue and others, John Bright has consented to forego a part of his expected and desired autumn vacation, for the purpose or paying a visit to Ireland. His object in so doing is to promote "a more perfect union between the Liberals of Ireland" and those of England, "with a view to wiser leading to the cally with a view to wiser leading to the call of the call o

THE rebel sheet in this city concedes he point we make against Judge Thos W. Harrison's recent Hampshire county decision, that the officers of registra tion are to be governed by "the Consti-tution as it is" in determining who are to be registered as voters, even if it were true that the particular form of oath prescribed by the registry law was not authorized when enacted. Seeing how untenable the Judge's position really is, it now claims that his decision was Professor Weed has been on here and given His Excellency some more these properts and processes. not that the Amendment should be disregarded, but that "the registrar could not require of the applicants for registration such an oath as that contained in the registration act." The order itself will show what Judge Harrison decided, "It is ordered that a peremptory writ of mandamus be awarded, directed to the members of the Board of Registration of the County of Hampshire, commanding them to cause the said James D.

Weed has been on here and given His Excellency some useful lessons to begin Armstrong to be registered as a voter, de." So far as that writ had power to compel, it left the board powerless to reject Mr. Armstrong at all. The board knew he was disqualified under the Constitution, and it is to be presumed the Judge knew it; for it was a matter of notoriety. But he does not order that Mr. A. should not be excluded for refusing to take a particular kind of oath, but that he should not be excluded for any reason—not even if the Constitution excluded him.
